HEAVY REMONSTRANCE AGAINST OIL STORAGE

Neighbors of L. B. Silliman Pay $5 Per $1,000 More for Insurance.

The aldermanic ordinance committee is considering whether it should permit L. B. Silliman to carry a stock of 200 barrels of kerosene oil in his premises on Water street, while some 25 of his neighbors continue to pay increased insurance rates. The neighbors are:

The Cudahy Packing Co., J. H. Coughlin, J. Nussendorf, H. Platt & Co., Turney Bros., Miner, Reed & Garrett, The Hubbell & Wade Co., E. L. Leaser, S. Hinchberg, Fred H. Uhle, Birnbaum Bros., John R. Woodhull, The H. M. Purdy Co., L. L. Stiles & Son, B. Sach, D. Trubee & Co., Mrs. Pauline K. Winther, L. Newberger & Son, Martha W. Birdseye, Alida F. Goodell, Samuel Newman, W. M. Terry, John H. Daskam.

These petitioned the council at its last meeting to reduce the number of barrels to 20. Judge A. E. Beers, who appeared for Mr. Silliman, said his client had been in business at the same stand for 22 years, and there had been no fire in all that time. He said if the permit was revoked it would mean that Mr. Silliman would be obliged to go out of business.

Chief Mooney said that he believed that Mr. Silliman's business should be located on the outskirts of the city as the storage of oil in large quantities in the center of the city is dangerous, particularly as in the case of the Silliman plant, where the rear is inaccessible to fire apparatus.

Attorney James A. Marr who appeared for the remonstrants, could not see why the city should continue the 200 barrel permit when the other property owners were obliged to pay an Increase of $5 per thousand for their insurance and would be obliged to continue paying it as long as the permit existed. The committee will report at the next meeting of the common council.

CAPTAINS' ORDINANCE PASSES COMMITTEE

Chairman Gould, of the aldermanic committee on ordinances, was instructed by the committee last night, to draft an amendment to the ordinance whereby the two lieutenants in the department would be abolished and two captains be created. The matter of making the pay of the patrol wagon the same as that of a patrolman, was not taken up.

Weather Indications.

New Haven, June 19.—Forecast: Fair and warmer to-night and Sunday.

Very little rain has fallen during the past 24 hours east of the Rocky Mountains except on the South Atlantic coast. The area of high pressure over the central sections is producing cool, pleasant weather in the northern sections east of the Mississippi river. Light frost was reported from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. The temperature is rising rapidly in the northwest. Conditions favor for this vicinity fair and warmer weather.

SILVER MEADOW

You have been promising to visit Silver Meadow. Don't put it off. Go there Saturday afternoon or Sunday. Take Stratford avenue car to South avenue. We own on both sides of South avenue so you can have your choice. Silver Meadow is that splendid tract of all lawn land just purchased by Miller & Jordan, and is now streeted and subdivided into building lots of 50x100 feet or over and are offered to the people of Bridgeport and surrounding towns at the lowest prices and easiest of terms. We are not springing twenty, twenty-five, or thirty foot lots on our customers where they would have to buy two or three to have room for a fair sized house. Our lots are all 50x100 feet or over. We are not promising trolley service, that is there. We are not promising city water, that is also there. Silver Meadow is forty years ahead of anything being offered for sale in or around Bridgeport. Why buy where you are only promised those improvements when you have to wait years to get them. If you ever get them you are lucky. Buy where they are, then you don't have to wait. This property is within eight minutes walk of the location of the new factories that are going up on the East Side. Get off the trolley at South avenue, see the sign Silver Meadow. There you are, everything right there, fine new houses going up and we will do in the future have been doing in the past. When you have your lot, if you wish to build we will assist you in doing that. So much for the East Side.

Now for YOU who live on the West Side, here you are, take Fairfield, Southport, Westport, Norwalk or Ash Creek car to Beachview avenue. We have fifteen hundred and fifty-two feet fronting on the south side of Fairfield avenue, this side of Ash Creek in the city of Bridgeport, with curb, gutter, sewer, sidewalks, city water and lights, police and fire protection, ambulance and hospital service and all for a 6.7 mill tax. Cross Ash Creek, take the trolley to the bridge into the town of Fairfield, you are taxed 11-1-2 mills and get nothing. Think those things over, within eight minutes walk of the location of the new factories that are going up on the East Side, and "Rehoboth" on the West Side. Get off the trolley at Beachview.

CAPT. PAUL BOYTON IS BUSY BOOKING MANY BIG FEATURES

Gorgeous Display of Fireworks Tonight at Steeplechase Island — Diving Horses for Another Week — Dare Devil Dash Next Week.

Captain Paul Boyton has arranged for an elaborate display of fireworks at Steeplechase Island this evening and the programme will include magnificent set pieces and gorgeous aerial pyrotechnics. The fireworks will be given immediately after the performance of the high diving horses, which have been re-engaged for another week because of the great popularity of the act, which is given every afternoon at 4 and evenings at 8:30. The horses will not appear at any other resort in Connecticut so the local engagement will provide the only opportunity of ever seeing this wonderful feat in this state.

As an added attraction, to open tomorrow night and with two performances daily thereafter, following the diving horses, Captain Boyton will offer the daring act in mid air by Dare Devil Dash, who rides down an inclined ladder at a great pace, off the end of the ladder into space, allowing the bicycle to fall into a net while the performer dives into the water. The ladder is 60 feet high. Two free feature acts will be offered every afternoon and evening next week.

To-morrow the bathing pavilion will open for the season and there will be a championship game in the state league series between Bridgeport and New Haven at 3:30. A new shooting gallery with moving targets will open and other new attractions will be provided.

Orphans' Auto Outing

Tuesday, Next Week

Lincoln Banks, chairman of the Orphans Day Committee of the Automobile Club of Bridgeport, has arranged the following route which the cars filled with children will take next Tuesday afternoon: Assemble at the Bridgeport Orphan asylum at 2:30 p. m.; Fairfield avenue to Park avenue, to Seaside Park, to Broad street, to Fairfield avenue, to Clinton avenue, to North avenue, to Main street, to East Washington avenue, to Noble avenue, to Beardsley park, to William street, to East Washington avenue, to Washington avenue, to Park avenue, to Fairfield avenue, to Southport. The orphans will be served with refreshments at Southport through the kindness of Lewis B. Curtis. Dr. Banks desires more cars than have as yet reported. They will be required about two hours.

GRASMEIRE'S RAPID SALE

Beautiful Property a Great Success—200 Lots Remain to be Sold and Sunday Will be a Busy Day.

Grasmere lots have sold even more rapidly than expected, so great has been the desire to invest in this beautiful tract with its many advantages. Over 300 lots have been sold and the 200 remaining lots will find a ready sale as the demand continues steadily heavy and a large crowd of buyers is expected tomorrow. Grasmere is on the car line with 1,800 feet frontage on Fairfield avenue, which gives it an immense advantage recognized by everybody, as every lot is on or close to the best car service in Bridgeport. We are not offering all lots by either the Ash Creek or Fairfield cars. The remaining 200 lots are just as beautiful as any that have been sold and the terms are the same, viz: one dollar down, then 50 cents, 75 cents or one dollar a week without interest or taxes. Grasmere is perfect property and will build up quickly with pretty homes, as no lots are being sold to undesirable buyers. The Bridgeport Trust Co. executes all contracts and deeds and receives all payments. Grasmere is quickly reached by either Ash Creek or Fairfield cars and Sunday will be a big day there.

INJURED IN MOTOR BOAT

It required just twenty-three stitches to sew up a bad circular cut on the instep of the right foot of Matthew Mulligan, a resident of City Island, New York. Mulligan is a boatman on the pleasure craft Majave which was on its way from New York to Thimble Island. The boat put into the local harbor to repair some electrical fixtures. While the boat was running into the harbor Mulligan went down into the stern to bail out some water, his right foot catching in the crank. The shoe was torn off and the foot terribly mangled. The ambulance conveyed the victim to St. Vincent's hospital where it was reported that amputation would not be necessary.
